BURGLARS ACTIVE THROUGHOUT CITY

Entrance to Several Offices, Business Houses and Residences Effected Tuesday Night.

WINDOWS AND DOORS FORCED

Safe at Office of Seymour Manufacturing Co. Tampered With But is Not Opened.

Burglars operated in various parts of the city Tuesday night, but despite their bold, high-handed methods they obtained little booty. Entrance to all the offices and business houses was gained through windows which had been forced open by a "jimmy" or crowbar. The prints of the tools could be plainly seen on the window sills today.

At the Seymour Manufacturing Company entrance was made into the office through a window on Broadway. The bottom of the window sash had been splintered by the force applied to the bar. The curtain at the window was twisted showing that the man or men entered the room hurriedly and probably left in the same manner. The window was closed after the burglars left the room.

So far as known nothing was obtained there. The drawers in the desks and cabinets were found open when the office was first entered this morning. The lock on the safe had been left on the short combination and that it had been turned was evident as the safe could be opened today only after the long combination was used. There was little money in the safe as the firm banks each day and keeps only enough money on hands to pay express charges and other minor bills. It is not believed an attempt was made to enter the vault where the books are kept.

The burglars did not take any of the papers and it is not thought they attempted to interfere with the files which is taken to indicate that they were looking for cash or other valuables that could easily be converted in money. It is probable that the burglars were frightened away from the office by the night watchman when he registered at the time block in the iron room adjoining the office. The click of the block can be plainly heard in the office and the watchman makes his rounds each hour. The watchman does not visit the interior of the office as all the papers and other files are securely protected in the safety vault.

At the home of A. A. Phillips, 213 St. Louis Avenue, a burglar entered a bedroom and took a pair of trousers, a small amount of change and a ring of keys. Mr. Phillips, who is an engineer on the B. & O. Southwestern Railroad, came in on his run about 2 o'clock this morning. Just before he reached home his daughter heard someone prowling around the house and called her mother. When Mr. Phillips came he tried to allay the fears of his family and told them he was positive no one had been around the house. He remained awake until 4 o'clock but when he awakened this morning he found that a burglar had entered his room. He says the robber is welcome to the

EIGHT INCHES OF SNOW IN SEYMOUR 53 YEARS AGO TODAY

Winter Weather Prevailed On Oct. 27, 1862, When Indiana Regiments Were at Parole Camp.

Fifty-three years ago today, Oct. 27, 1862, an eight inch snow fell in Seymour, according to Fred Miller, of East Second street. The snow began falling on the night of the 26th and continued throughout the night and most of the 27th. Members of the 50th and 67th Indiana Volunteers were at home on parole, having been exchanged for Confederate prisoners after being held as prisoners at Munfordsville, Ky., and on that day received orders to report at parole camp at Indianapolis, from where they were ordered to join Sherman's army in Tennessee. Mr. Miller, Benj. Carter and James Honan, all of Co. K, 50th Indiana, known as the "Tigers," recall the day very distinctly.

GRAND JURY CLOSES WORK OF SESSION

Only Three Indictments Returned, Establishing New Record for This County.

ABOUT 100 WITNESSES HEARD

Nature of the Investigations During Last Eight Days is Not Disclosed.

By returning three indictments today the grand jury established a new record in Jackson county. It is the smallest number that has ever been returned after a regular session of that body, although but two indictments were returned several years ago when the grand jury was called in special session to investigate a murder case.

The grand jury closed its work at noon and filed the indictments with Judge Swails. The court was in session to receive the report of the body and no cases were heard. The grand jury has been in session for eight days.

It was the general belief around the court house, because of the large number of witnesses called, that many indictments would be returned and the report caused considerable surprise. No bench warrants were issued by the court. The nature of the indictments was not disclosed and will remain secret until after the arrests are made. Evidently the grand jury heard many petty complaints which it did not believe were serious enough to result in a prosecution. The work of the grand jury is conducted under the direction of the prosecuting attorney.

There has been little business in circuit court this week and few new cases have been filed.

Late Tuesday afternoon a damage suit was filed by W. B. Russell, of this city, against the Western Union Telegraph Company for $500. The plaintiff alleged that in October, 1913, he sent a message from Hous-

PARK COMMITTEE NAMED BY COUNCIL

Appointments Made Following Recommendation That Work in 1916 be Planned Early.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE IN 1915

Permanent System of Driveways and Flower Beds May be Followed During Coming Spring.

That the plans for beautifying the city park which were originated this spring might be continued and enlarged in 1916, a Citizens' Park Committee was appointed by the board of works at the regular meeting last night. Fred Able, a member of the committee this year, was present and filed a report. He stated that much had been done towards popularizing the city park and enumerated the improvements that had been made, including the erection of the band stand and the swimming pool. He recommended that a committee be appointed for 1916 so that the plans could be made during the winter and the actual work could be started early in the spring. It was stated that the work did not start until later this spring and the committees believes that it would be advisable to give the matter early consideration.

Following the report of Mr. Able the board of works appointed the following committee for 1916: Fred Able, Nathan Kaufman, W. L. Johnson, Albert Ahlbrand, Mrs. M. S. Blish and Mrs. B. F. Schneck.

It is understood that the committee intends to lay out a number of driveways and flower beds and to improve the park next year according to a definite plan. It has been recommended that the improvements be permanent as far as possible and that a permanent plan will be more economical. By such a system it will be necessary to lay out the driveways but once and when they are improved the work will stand for years.

The park has been more popular this year than ever before. The swimming pool, which was made possible by the liberal contributions of citizens, was constructed and has been attractive to hundreds of children. While an additional expense has been occasioned by the swimming pool and other improvements on the grounds it is generally conceded that the extra cost is justified.

The Citizens' Park Committee works in conjunction with the park committee of the council and the recommendations made by the former are acted upon by the latter. They are then placed before the council.

Very little other business was transacted by the council last night. A few minor street repairs were ordered. The session was not long.

TO PREVENT SALE OF DISEASED HOGS

Campaign to Enforce Law is Instituted by Dr. H. E. Barnard, StateDrug Commissioner.

LETTERS SENT TO THE MAYORS

Heads of Indiana Cities Asked to Co-operate to Prevent Sale of Cholera Animals.

Believing there have been flagrant violations of the law prohibiting the offering of cholera hogs at public or private sale, Dr. H. E. Barnard, Indiana state food and drug commissioner, has issued a letter to all the mayors in the state asking them to co-operate with the state health board in preventing such sales and calling upon the officials to notify the department of such violations. Dr. Barnard hopes through this campaign to stop the practice of selling diseased hogs and also believes that the measures will greatly assist in stamping out the disease which is generally reported throughout the state.

So far as known there have been few violations of the law in this county and none of them willful. In several cases, it is reported, hogs that have been sold have afterwards developed cholera but the presence of the disease was not known to the original owners. Precautions have been taken at all the public sales held in this county since the disease became prevalent to prevent it from spreading to unaffected areas. Farmers who attend many of the sales say they believe the presence of cholera in the county has had an effect upon the hog sales but say that the owners are always careful about placing hogs that even have been exposed to cholera on the market.

It is said that there has been a lack of funds to prosecute under the law but Dr. Barnard is authority for the statement that his department now is amply able to prosecute all such violations and that he has determined to stop this practice. The following is a copy of a letter that has been sent to the mayor of every city in Indiana:

"We are in the midst of the worst hog cholera epidemic that has ever visited the state and many thousands of hogs suffering from cholera are being sold slaughtered and used as food, in every case in violation of law and of common decency. The situation is serious and so long as hog cholera is generally prevalent your market is bound to receive diseased animals unless unusual efforts are taken to exclude them. Will you advise me whenever you know of shipments of diseased hogs, either in or from your city, in order that they may be intercepted and the shipper prosecuted for violation of the law. I am sure you will assist your health officer, who is our deputy, in whatever measures are necessary to control the sale of diseased animals."

BREITUNG SURRENDERS TO THE FEDERAL AUTHORITIES

Charged With Participation in Plot to Blow up Ships Carrying War Munitions.

By United Press.

New York, October 27—Max Breitung, wanted by the federal authorities for alleged participation in a plot to blow up ships carrying munitions to the allies surrendered himself today and furnished bond for $25,000 for his appearance for preliminary examination on November 4.

Breitung came to New York from Chicago voluntarily and unaccompanied. He said he left a Lake Shore train at the 25th Street Station while city detectives were waiting to greet him at the Grand Central Station and went first to his home. He then went to his attorney retained for him by his millionaire uncle, Edward N. Breitung, of Marquet, Mich., and afterwards surrendered himself before United States Commissioner Houghton, who fixed bail.

DELEGATES SHOW MUCH BITTERNESS

Fight for Presidency of State Federation of Women's Clubs is Opened.

MRS. FAIRBANK IS CANDIDATE

Mrs. L. J. Cox, of Terre Haute, is Also Nominated—Stand on Liquor Question an Issue.

By United Press.

Indianapolis, October 26.—The sensational fight for the presidency of the State Federation of Women's Clubs was formally opened today with the nomination of Mrs. Clarke Fairbank, of Ft. Wayne, and Mrs. L. J. Cox, of Terre Haute. The convention resembled a men's political convention to the minutest detail with bitterness poorly concealed and with vigorous pulling of invisible wires. The stand the federation shall take on the liquor question was the prominent issue.

Mrs. Fairbank's forces won the first victory when Miss Vida Newsom, of Columbus, presiding, ruled that Mrs. Cox, because of her candidacy, could not in fairness serve as parliamentarian. "I have suggester to Mrs. Cox that she withdraw," said Miss Newsom. "But she disagrees with me. Is the ruling of the chair sustained?"

Mrs. Cox arose to speak but was found out of order. The vote was decidedly in favor of sustaining the president. The Fairbank forces after the nominations had been made then sprung their second coupe in the nomination of Mrs. Leo Stearns, of Terre Haute, for second Vice-president. The federation rules are that no two offices shall come from the same district and those voting for Mrs. Stearns are not expected to support Mrs. Cox.

TEUTONIC FORCES MOVE ON SERBIA

Austro-Germans Said to Have Advanced Forty Miles South of Serbia's Northern Frontier.

HOLD HEIGHTS TO EASTWARD

Three Thousand Dead Italians Reported on Field in Front of Position Captured.

By United Press.

Vienna, October 27—Austro-German troops had progressed about forty miles today at various points south of Serbia's northern frontier.

Almost due south of Belgrade, where they had penetrated farthest, they have driven the Serbians past Topola and taken the heights to the eastward.

Three thousand fallen Italians still lie in the open in front of the position held by one Austrian regiment on the Bobero Plateau on the Osonzo front, according to an official statement today.

The Italian losses were very heavy throughout this district, said the official report.

IMPORTANT GAINS MADE BY AUSTRO-GERMAN FORCES

Progress Made at Positions Taken All Along the Line of the Serbo-Austrian Frontier.

By United Press

Berlin, October 27—The Austro-Germans made the important gains in Serbia today since the invasion began. They effected a junction with their Bulgarian allies, the war office announced. This was at Ljubicezae in northeastern Serbia. Thus the road was opened to Constantinople.

Progress was made at important positions taken all along the line from the Serbo-Austrian frontier in the west to the Serbo-Roumanian frontier in the east. The center, more advanced than the wings, continued its gains in the direction of Nish.

CHICAGO STRIKE LEADER APPEALS TO STATE ATTORNEY

Sidney Hillman Says Garment Workers Can Give No Protection Against "Sluggers."

By United Press

Chicago, Oct. 27—Declaring the 20,000 garment workers "can get no protection from the police against hired sluggers," Sidney Hillman, strike leader, today appealed to State Attorney Hoyne. Hillman not only asked protection but said he would furnish Hoyne with evidence upon which he might base court action.

While Hillman was at the county building eighteen strikers, six of them women, were arrested for loitering about their meeting hall. The arrests were the first action following Acting Chief Schuettler's orders.

SEEK MEN BEHIND BOMB PLOTTERS

Trail Is Directed to Source of Money Supply.

TEUTON AGENTS MERE PAWNS

Federal Authorities Believe Prisoners In German Bomb Plot Are Privates In Vast Scheme Put In Operation In This Country.

New York, Oct. 27.—Lieutenant Robert Fay, Max Breitung, Walter E. Scholz and others accused of conspiracy to destroy munition carrying ships are regarded as mere pawns in a vast campaign by the federal authorities who are searching for the fountain head of the cash and the directing impulse believed to be behind the movement to harass the allies in their purchases of munitions and war supplies in this country.

The stories of Lieutenant Fay and Scholz, in which they confessed to making mines for the disabling of the allies' ships, sailing from this port, were believed only to a limited extent. The federal authorities believe Fay and Scholz are concealing many important facts about their activities.

While Fay and Scholz are thought to have told the truth about making explosive mines, Fay at least, is regarded as having had relations with superiors in this country, men who furnished the money and gave detailed directions as to what they wanted done. He and his associates are said by the secret service to have spent $30,000 in the last six months.

The question is, where did the other money come from, and the authorities are said to be able to follow that money to a certain extent, but not its ultimate source.

Those are the men for whom with infinite pains and care the search has been going on.

One witness who contradicts Lieutenant Fay is a man who admits the names of Paul Seib and Karl F. Oppengaarde, and registers at the Breslin from Stockholm, Sweden. Seib, according to Captain Thomas Tunney, of the bomb squad, states that Fay admitted to him two distinct plans that he had in mind.

One of these plans was the blowing up of a large chemical plant that furnished certain basic materials for high explosives. Still another scheme was that of seeking to bribe the captain of a Russian freighter carrying copper to a Russian port, by offering him $500,000 if he, Oppengaarde, could induce the captain of a ship carrying copper to stray accidentally near German waters where the vessel could be seized by a German cruiser. The bribe was to be divided between the captain and Oppengaarde.

That the cases of the five men accused in a federal warrant may bring more sensational disclosures, involving German agents, seems probable.

It was pointed out that no alleged German agent thus far has been held in $25,000 bail. The fact, too, that all the men are held in equally large amounts was taken to mean that the men will be the objects of extremely serious charges, the full nature of which has not been divulged.

ILLINOIS MAY GO AHEAD

Secretary Garrison Interposes No Objection to Waterway Project.

Washington, Oct. 27.—Chicago can have its through waterway to the Gulf of Mexico, as far as the federal government is concerned. Secretary of War Garrison informed Governor Dunne and the Illinois waterway commission the government would interpose no objection to the scheme of the Illinois government to improve the Illinois river from Lockport to La-Salle, so navigation could be opened through to the Mississippi river.

Illinois' program of spending $5,000,000 on this work is expected to go through now without a hitch.

EVENTS IN THE WAR ONE YEAR AGO TODAY

By United Press.

France reported slackening of the German offensive between Dixmude and Nieuport, and Allied gains north of Ypres and between La Basse and Lens.

Berlin denied the modification of the offensive, but admitted that Austro-Germans evacuated Russian Poland before fresh Russian troops. The German cruiser Emden sank a small Jap steamer. Japan's land and sea force bombardment of Tsing-Tau continued.

Desperate fighting on the San river and general repulse of Austro-German forces in Russian Poland was reported by Russia.

Premier Botha defeated Gen. Beyers, thus giving the Boer rebellion in South Africa a setback, England said.

PEACE OVERTURES MADE BY GERMANY

Exchange of Views With England Is Rumored.

New York, Oct. 27.—From Information received from apparently reliable sources it is declared that Germany and England have already exchanged views with regard to terms of peace.

According to this information, which there is every reason to regard as authentic, a neutral residing in Berlin was authorized to bear in writing Germany's terms of peace to England. This man, carrying documents from the imperial German chancellor, Dr. Bethmann-Hollweg, was received by Sir Edward Gray, who knew in advance the purpose of his mission.

Peace could be secured by ceding to Germany such colonies as Uganda and Nigeria by England, and the French and Belgian Congo as a ransom from France and Belgium.

The question of an indemnity to the amount of the cost of one year of war was also laid before Sir Edward Grey. These terms were, of course, unsatisfactory, and Sir Edward Grey then outlined his terms of peace.

It is also stated upon the best authority that a distinguished ambassador in Berlin learned from England of this exchange of peace terms and the ambassador discussed this matter with the imperial German chancellor, Bethmann-Holloweg, who denied that he had sent a special envoy to London.

It was declared as common belief by various statesman that President Wilson and the Pope could bring about peace.

FOOD PROBLEM IN GERMANY

Will Conserve Foodstuffs by Adopting Restriction Rules.

Berlin (via Amsterdam), Oct. 27.—The Morgenpost says the imperial chancellor, Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, has invited the party leaders in the Prussian diet to confer on the foodstuffs problem on Nov. 2.

German papers show that the proposal to fix certain days on which no meat is to be eaten, is being universally discussed. It is predicted that the people will adapt themselves to the restriction without protest.

The Vossische Zeitung prints a "Hausfrau's" suggestion of the best schedule:

"No meat on Monday and Friday. No fat on Tuesday and Saturday. No pork on Wednesday. Full rations on Sunday and Thursday."

FOUR HELD FOR FIRE HORROR

Pittsbur, Pa., Oct. 27.—The executor of the estate owning the building in which the Union Paper Box company was located and three officials of the company were arrested here in connection with the fire which resulted in the deaths of thirteen persons and injury of twenty others.

The warrants which were issued by Coroner Samuel C. Jamison, state that the men are wanted for "charges that may result regarding the deaths of Colletta Sellman and others." Miss Sellman was one of the girls who lost her life in the fire. Officials of the company refused to discuss their arrest.

H. H. Woods, executor of the Brown estate, was released on $10,000 bail, and Henry E. Welskopf, president; William C. Kimbel, secretary and treasurer, and Henry C. Schaefer, foreman of the factory of the box company, were released on $5,000 bail to appear at the coroner's inquest, which probably will be held next Tuesday.

Gertrude Niedt, who jumped from the third story to the sidewalk, fracturing many bones in her body, is in a serious condition, and there is little hope for her recovery. Physicians said the other injured persons are improving rapidly.

Five investigations, three by the county, one by the state and one by the city, are under way here in an effort to fix the blame for the fire.

District Attorney J. H. Jackson and County Fire Marshal Thomas Pfarr have instituted a probe into the cause of the fire. Supervising Inspector Francis Feehan and Inspector George J. Rudolph will investigate for the state department of labor and industry. Mayor Joseph G. Armstrong is at the head of the city's inquiry. The mayor will also ask the city council to appropriate money to relieve the families of fire victims.

CHOLERA MENACE SERIOUS

Pure Food Board to Prevent Sale of Diseased Meats.

Indianapolis, Oct. 27.—The prevalency of cholera among the hogs of the state and especially the hogs being shipped into Indianapolis for the public market, caused Dr. A. F. Nelson, state veterinarian and H. E. Barnard, pure food and drug commissioner, to begin a campaign to stop the possibilities of the sale of such hogs.

Barnard has advised all his deputies in the state that the epidemic is the worst ever encountered and that many thousands of hogs were being sold and slaughtered and used for food. The situation, he said, is so serious, hucksters and other persons selling meat are sure to receive meat of diseased animals unless extraordinary precaution is taken.

REWARDED FOR HOSPITALITY

Stranger Leaves Town $1,500,000 For Kindness Shown Him.

Washington, Oct. 27.—Because it showed hospitality to a stranger from Pennsylvania who was hated at home, the city of Winchester, Va., sixty-two miles from Washington, and boasting of a population of 7,000, will shortly come into possession of a legacy of $1,500,000. It is the bequest of John Handler, an eccentric millionaire of Scranton, Pa., who died twenty years ago.

Handley's will provided that for twenty years his executors should administer the bulk of his estate in such a way that at the end of that period they could hand it over to the Virginia city for the "education of her poor."

The town will use the money to build a model high school.

Rules Typhoid Fever Is Accident.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 27.—The supreme court of Wisconsin in an opinion given in the case of the New Dells Lumber company vs. Veneer, held that typhoid fever contracted through drinking water supplied by the employer and resulting in the death of employer, is an accident and within the meaning of the workmen's compensation act.

BULGARS CAPTURE PRIZREND

Great Britain Rushes Troops to the Aid of French Allies Operating In the Balkans—Germans to Defend Bulgarian Coast.

Athens, Oct. 27.—According to unconfirmed reports the Bulgarians have captured Prizrend, thirty-seven miles northwest of Uskub.

London, Oct. 27.—The principal success achieved by the invaders of Serbia during the last twenty-four hours is the capture by the Bulgarian extreme right of the city of Negotin, and of the town of Przhovo, on the Danube.

This places them in the immediate vicinity of the left wing of the Austro-German chain of armies, which is advancing southwestward from Orsova. A junction of the Teutons with the Balkan allies is a matter of a comparatively short time.

The defense of Bulgaria's Black sea coast has been intrusted to Germany, according to a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company, which asserts that 5,000 German soldiers from Constantinople are replacing the Bulgarians at points on the Black sea.

Simultaneously, it is reported from Athens, in confirmation of previous dispatches, that Turkey has sent troops to aid Bulgaria.

The Austro-Germans have reached Narkova, sixteen miles due north of Kragujevac, the new Serbian capital.

In the face of this unabated progress of the invaders the forces of the entente powers are directed with renewed hope to the two points, Krivolak on the Salonica-Nish railroad, and Robova, eight miles south of Strumnitza. At both places the French troops, after defeating the Bulgarians, have firmly established themselves, but the Bulgars have turned attackers and reinforcements are sorely needed.

Great Britain has dispatched one brigade from Salonica to Dorian, forty miles northwest of Salonica. These troops are now on their way with forced marches.

Other Anglo-French troops are expected to proceed at once to reinforce the French at Krivolak, with the view to regaining control of the Salonica-Nish railroad, now in Bulgarian hands, between Krupili and Vranje.

Both Italy and Russia are reported in unofficial dispatches to be preparing to send troops to Serbia's aid.

Meanwhile Greece and Roumania, especially Greece, remain objects for considerable anxiety for the Britons.

EIGHT FIREMEN ARE HURT

Motor Truck Crashes Into Package Car at Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 27.—Eight city firemen were injured, one probably fatally, when a motor truck, responding at high speed to an alarm, crashed head-on into an electric package car in Central avenue.

Captain James Killoran, sitting with the driver, was hurled under the wheels of the interurban car and suffered a fractured skull. The collision occurred when the truck turned out to avoid striking a wagon and could not turn back in time to avoid the package car.

John H. Kamman went to Brownstown this morning to attend court.

OCTOBER VIES WITH JUNE IN FRUITS AND FLOWERS

Violets, Cherry Blossoms, Crimson Ramblers, Strawberries and Blackberries Products of Month.

October is evidently trying to absorb some of the popularity that has always belonged to June, and in addition to furnishing some days that will compare very favorable with the June product about which Mr. Lowell raved, she is producing some fruits and flowers that have always heretofore belonged almost exclusively to June. In the Republican office today is a bouquet composed of violets, crimson rambler roses and cherry blossoms, which was brought in by Willis H. Greene, of 610 W. Tipton street. Strawberries and blackberries have been brought in this month, and were it not for the fact that hickory nuts and falling leaves were so much in evidence at the present, one might almost imagine that June had stepped out of line in the procession and had dropped back to pay October a visit. Of course, the Indian Summer season explains the weather, but the numerous instances of late fruits and blooms are indeed unusual.

Nature's beauties were never better displayed than during the Indian Summer days now at hand and the dreamy hazy beauty of October sunshine is prying many away from desks and stores for a day's outing in the Autumn woods or along the river. The long evenings, illumined by the full October moon, also lend themselves to motor trips, hay rides and other expeditions, and many such events are being enjoyed nightly.

$15,000 DAMAGE SUIT ON TRIAL FOR SECOND TIME

Miss Leona Greer Alleges She Was Injured in Accident When Auto Hit Buggy.

Witnesses for the plaintiff were heard today in the suit filed by Miss Leona Greer, of this city, against T. S. Blish, of this city for $15,000 damages for alleged injuries received in an accident in which the automobile owned by the defendant and a buggy in which the plaintiff was riding are alleged to have collided. The case is on trial in the Scott circuit court at Scottsburg.

This is the second time the case has been tried in Scott county, having been venued there from this county. In the first trial the jury failed to agree on a verdict. The plaintiff in her complaint alleges that she was driving along a country road in Hamilton township and the automobile of the defendant was traveling towards the vehicle at a rapid rate of speed, that the buggy was turned to the side of the road and that the defendant's automobile hit the buggy. She claims she was left in a weakened condition as a result of the accident. The evidence presented at the retrial of the case is substantially the same as that given at the first trial.

VALE PRESIDENT DECRIES THE FAKING NEWSPAPER

"Buy Honest Paper and Think While You Read" He Tells Students.

The American people must acquire the habit of looking into evidence, said President Arthur T. Hadley of Yale in his matriculating sermon at New Haven, Conn., the other day.

"We must stop buying the newspaper that tells what we wish was true and buy the one that tries to tell what really is," he said.

"We must refuse to repeat unproved gossip or scandal because we like it. This will soon grow into the habit of not liking it. We shall learn to hate the unconscious lie as well as the intentional one.

"There may sometimes be a question whether we should tell the truth to others who cannot see it or understand it; there can be no question at all that we should tell it to ourselves. And when a man has learned to tell the truth to himself the problem of telling it to others becomes comparatively easy."

"The whole fabric of American society rests on the assumption that we are going to be honest in our dealings," asserted President Hadley. "Truthfulness in word and in act, strict fulfillment of every obligation, straightforwardness in meeting all promises, expressed or implied, independent of the temporary gain or loss to ourselves, are the things that give us the right and power to be members of a free commonwealth."

The Salvation Army.

Mrs. Capt. J. Henderson of the Salvation Army at Bedford, is in the city to solicit funds to help carry on the work of uplifting the fallen, rescue the perishing and such good work needs your assistance. "OLD KENTUCKY" IS RICH AND FRUITY

This Delicious Chew Has the Wonderful Flavor of Choicest Burley Leaf

MADE BY MODERN METHODS

If you don't chew tobacco you simply cannot get the full measure of enjoyment out of it.

A good chew, with its juicy richness and appetizing flavor, is an aid to digestion. That means it's beneficial to the whole system. And the best chew is plug tobacco, the closest-to-nature form into which tobacco leaf can be made.

Nature's own sweetness is in every juicy chew of Old Kentucky. You never before tasted such mellow richness—you can't get so much deliciously sweet flavor out of any other chew.

The rich leaf for Old Kentucky is selected, re-selected, picked over by hand, stemmed by hand, pressed into pure, luscious, golden-brown plugs by the most wholesome modern methods.

Try a 10-cent plug of Old Kentucky. You'll find it wonderfully tasty, wholesome and appetizing—a rich, mellow chew that exactly suits your taste.

Old Kentucky No. 1.

"THE SHOE TAX"

Father's income knows what it is and to mother it is also a very real thing.

It means the high cost of keeping a growing boy or girl properly shod.

When father and mother figure out all the new shoes they have to buy they are apt to conclude shoes are made out of paper rather than leather.

Care in purchasing will cut down this tax, care in choosing the right shoes and care in buying at the most favorable time.

And the first step in the right direction is a study of the advertising in The Republican that gives the helpful information.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Nutter went to Cincinnati this morning. Mrs. Nutter will visit her sister, Mrs. Ellsworth Groff and Mr. Nutter will attend the Buggy Show.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wilson and Miss Nellie Wilson, who have been visiting relatives at Uniontown, came here Tuesday to visit with Dr. and Mrs. N. C. Rucker for a few days.

"P. A." spells tobacco all over the world

Men of all tastes take to Prince Albert tobacco like it just about answers all questions! And it does! Quicker you get on speaking terms with this national joy smoke the sooner you'll get a whole lot off your mind. Because, it just hands you more fun than you ever got out of a pipe before. The patented process fixes that—and removes the bite and parch.

Here's the latest member of the "old-time jimmy-pipers" club. It's a fine likeness of John E. Bach, 101 years old, of Newark, N. J. He has been a pipe smoker for 80 years. Mr. Bach, who enjoys his smokes every day, gives this idea of a long life: "Smoke all you want, eat all you want, sleep all you want—and don't worry!"

PRINCE ALBERT

is the one brand of tobacco you can take liberties with, firing away 24-hours straight without a tongue-kick! You get the listen of that.

Cut out lamenting for that old jimmy pipe stored away in the rafters; stop fretting about how you'd like to fire up, but you dassn't. Men, you can lay your last cent that you'll be top-notch-tickled if you catch the spirit of this testimony and get some P. A. and go to it! Never did anything but make smokers jimmy pipe joy'us—and that's just what's coming to you!

P. A. is sold everywhere in toppy red bags, 5c; tidy red tins, 10c; handsome pound and half-pound tin humidors—and—that classy crystal-glass pound humidor with the sponge-moistener top that keeps P. A. bang up.

Can you sit-tight and get that P. A. aroma from somebody else's friendly old pipe? Can you pass up pleasure that's due you, and coming to you quick as you jump that fence into the Prince Albert pasture? Come on out and be a regular fellow who's game to take a chance for what ails his smokeappetite division!

GANG OF BANDITS HOLDS UP EXPRESS

More Than a Dozen of Robbers, Faces Blackened, Stop Passenger Train on M., K., & T.

GET PACKAGES OF JEWELRY

Bloodhounds Used by Posse Are Not Needed Because of Trial of Empty Whiskey Bottles.

By United Press.

Enfaula, Okla., October 27—The first minstrel train robbery in the history of the country was pulled off about nine miles north of here early today.

Between twelve and fifteen bandits, faces blackened with burned cork, held up southbound passenger train No. 9 on the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railroad, blew two safes in an express car and escaped with four packages said to contain an quantity of cheap jewelry together with several bottles of whiskey.

Five posses with bloodhounds were pursuing the bandits in an easternly direction today. The gang was well mounted and the officers had failed to gain appreciably in the first several miles of the chase. The bloodhounds were a superfluous asset at first as the fugitives left a wideopen trial of empty whiskey bottles.

The train had reached a point just south of Onapa when two men climbed over the tender and slid into the cab. Their faces were blackened and the firemen believing them to be negroes was on the point of bouncing a shovel over their heads when he noticed their complexions were artificial. A disposition to laugh was checked by two very business like revolvers.

AMERICANS MUST FIGHT UNTIL THE WAR CLOSES

Uncle Sam Unable to Secure Their Release, According to Ruling of British War Office.

By United Press.

London, Oct. 6 (By Mail)—Adult Americans whose adventurous spirits tempted them to enlist in European belligerent armies must remain soldiers until they are killed or the war is ended.

This is the situation confronting scores of Uncle Sam's citizens who have had their fill of war and want to get out. Uncle Sam can't help them, though many have requested his mediation. The British war office will not release the Americans it has enlisted.

The American embassy in London, which has been successful in having between fifty and sixty American minors released from British military service, could not extend this service to the adults.

In answer to many appeals from men who joined the Canadians and who have survived hard fighting, the embassy passed the question to the State department at Washington. The department's answer quoted the following order of 1901, which is still in force.

"The Department of State, in an instruction to the United States Consul at Lourenco Marques, during the Boer war, held that an American citizen who wilfully takes up arms in the service of a foreign state must bear the consequences of his act, and cannot expect, while he serves under a foreign banner, to be protected by this government."

Previous to receipt of this instruction, inquiry by the embassy at the British war office, elicited the statement that the British government was unwilling to release American adults who have taken the King's oath.

So, American fighters must keep on fighting until death or peace musters them out.

POWER OF JUVENILE COURTS IS QUESTIONED

Mother Who Was Deprived of Two Sons Asks That They be Returned to Her.

By United Press.

Indianapolis, Ind., October 27—Has a juvenile court power to adjudge dependent and neglected children wards of the court and to deprive the parents of such children of their custody? There is a law on the statutes books of Indiana granting such power. However, its constitutionality was questioned today in the hearing of two habeas corpus suits in superior court.

Mrs. Lydia Vandegrift filed suit against Susanna J. Pray, superintendent of the Marion county juvenile detention home, asking that her two sons be returned to her. She alleged that she was deprived of her two sons and their earnings without due process of law. The law was attacked on the grounds that it provides only for exparte hearings before the juvenile judge instead of hearing of both parties to the case.

Elsewhere it was said the night was quiet.

CHAPTER XIII.

In other years Bad Anse Havey remembered the days in that house when the voices of women and children had been raised in song and laughter. Then the family had gathered in the long winter evenings before the roaring backlogs, and spinning wheel and quilting frame had not yet gone to the cobwebs of the cockloft. But that was long ago.

The quarter-century over which his memory traveled had brought changes even to the hills. The impalpable ghost of decay moves slowly, with no sound save the occasional click of a sagging door here and the snap of a cord there, but in twenty-five years it moves—and an inbred generation comes to impaired manhood. Since Bad Anse himself had returned from Frankfort his house had been tenanted only by men, and an atmosphere of grimness hung in its shadows. A half-dozen unkempt and loutish kinsmen dwelt there with him, tilling the ground and ready to bear arms. More than once they had been needed.

It was to this place that Juanita Holland and the preacher were making their way on that October afternoon.

At the gate they encountered a solitary figure gazing stolidly out to the front, and when their coming roused it out of its gloomy reverie it turned and presented the scowling face of Jeb McNash.

"Where air they?" he demanded wrathfully, wheeling upon the two arrivals, and then he repeated violently: "By heaven, where air they? Why hain't ye done fotched Dawn and Jesse?"

"Jeb," said the missionary quietly, "we done come over hyar fust ter hev speech with Anse Havey. Whar's he at?"

"I reckon he's in his house, but ye hain't answered my question. I'm ther one for ye ter talk ter fust. Hit's my sister ye've done been sufferin' ter consort with murderers, an' hit's me ye've got ter reckon with."

Brother Talbott only nodded. "Son," he gently assured him, "we aims ter talk with you, too, but I reckon ye hain't got no call ter hinder us from havin' speech with Anse first."

For a moment Jeb stood dubious, then he jerked his head toward the house.

"Go on in thar, ef ye sees fit. I hain't got no license ter stop ye," he said curtly; "but don't aim ter leave 'thout seein' me, too."

Several shaggy retainers were lounging on the front porch, but as Good Anse Talbott and Juanita turned in at the gate these henchmen disappeared inside. They would all be there to witness her humbling, thought the girl. It would please him to receive her with his jackal pack yelping derisively about him.

Then she saw another figure emerge from the dark door to stand at the threshold, and the flush in her cheeks grew deeper. Bad Anse Havey stood and waited, and when they reached the steps of the porch he came slowly forward and said gravely, "Come inside." He led the way, and they followed in silence.

Juanita found herself in the largest room she had yet seen in the mountains—a room dark at its corners despite a shaft of sun that slanted through a window and fell on a heavy table in a single band of light. On the table lay a litter of pipes, loose tobacco, cartridges and several books. Down the stripe of sunlight the dust-motes floated in pulverized gold, and the radiance fell upon a book which lay open, throwing it into relief, so that as the girl stood uncertainly near the table she read at the top of a page the caption, "Plutarch's Lives."

But she caught her breath in relief, for the retainers had disappeared.

Bad Anse stood just at the edge of the sun-shaft, with one side of his face lighted and the other dark.

But if to the girl the whole picture was one of somber composition and color, it presented a different aspect to Bad Anse himself as the young mountaineer stood facing the door.

"We've done come ter hev speech with ye, Anse," Talbott began. "I reckon ye know what hit's erbout."

The Havey leader only nodded, and his steady eyes and straight mouth-line did not alter their sternness of expression.

He saw the stifled little gasp with which the girl read the ultimatum of his set face and the sudden mist of tears which, in spite of herself, blurred her eyes. He pushed forward a chair and gravely inquired: "Hadn't ye better set down, ma'am?"

She shook her head and raised one hand, which trembled a little, to brush the hair out of her eyes.

Palpably she was trying to speak and could not for the moment command her voice. But at last she got herself under control, and her words came slowly and carefully.

"Mr. Havey, I have very little reason to expect consideration from you. Even now, if it were a question of pleading for myself, I would die first but it isn't that." She paused and shook her head. "You told me that I must fail unless I came to you. Well I've come—I've come to humiliate myself. I guess I've come to surrender."

His face did not change and he did not answer. Evidently, thought the girl bitterly, she had not sufficiently abased herself. After a moment she went on in a very tired, yet a very eager voice.

"You are a man of action, Mr. Havey. I make my appeal to your manhood. I suppose you've never had a dream that has come to mean everything to you—but that's the sort of dream I've had. That little girl, Dawn, wants a chance. Her little brother wants a chance. I've humbled myself to come and plead for them. If you take them away from me you will smash my school. I don't underestimate your power now. Children are just beginning to come to me, and if you order these to leave, the others will leave, too, and they won't come back. It will kill my school. If that's your purpose, I guess it's no use even to plead. I know you can do it—and yet you told me you weren't making war on me."

"I reckon," interrupted Brother Talbott slowly, "ye needn't have no fear of thet, ma'am. Anse wouldn't do thet."

"But if you aren't doing that," went on Juanita, "I want to make my plea just for the sake of these children of your own people. I'm ready to accept your terms. I'm ready to abase and humble my own pride, only, for God's sake, give them a chance to grow clean and straight and break the shackles of illiteracy."

WHAT CAN YOU DO FOR CATARRH?

What? Ask yourself the question. How often has the doctor failed, as also ointments, salves, vapours? What you should do is to try S. S. S.

This easy, common-sense method—that costs so little—that is so quickly and vigorously effective—is often the last resort of many Catarrh sufferers. Why, it is hard to say. One of the trained specialists of the Swift Specific Company in Atlanta—a physician of standing and national reputation because of his knowledge of blood disorders, made the assertion that if the majority of chronic Catarrhal Victims would buy and faithfully take S. S. S., they could effectually get rid of Catarrh.

S. S. S. goes straight to the seat of trouble, the blood. It spreads its influence over every organ in the body, comes through all the veins and arteries, enables all mucous surfaces to exchange acids and irritating substances for red blood corpuscles that effectually cleanse the system and thus put an end to all Catarrhal pollution. S. S. S. cleans out the stomach of mucous accumulations, enables only pure, blood-making materials to enter the intestines, combines with these food elements to enter the circulation, and in less than an hour is at work throughout the body in process of purification.

S. S. S. is made from roots and herbs that are food and tonic for the blood. It stimulates—gives the blood power to throw off poisons. You will soon realize its wonderful influence by the absence of headache, a decided clearing of the air passages, a steadily improved nasal condition, and a sense of bodily relief that proves how completely Catarrh often infests the entire system.

You will find S. S. S. on sale at all drug stores. It is a remarkable remedy for any and all blood affections, such as Eczema, Rash, Lupus, Tetter, Psoriasis, Boils, and all other diseased conditions of the blood. For special advice on any blood disease write The Swift's Specific Company, Medical Department, Room 11, Atlanta, Ga. Avoid substitutes.

GOOD NEWS

Many Seymour Readers Have Heard It and Profited Thereby.

"Good news travels fast," and the bad back sufferers in Seymour are glad to learn where relief may be found. Many a lame, weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with this tested remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

John W. Brown, 508 W. Tipton St., Seymour, says: "My kidneys were disordered. The kidney secretions were profuse and painful in passage and at times highly colored. My back also annoyed me and a dull, heavy ache often extended from my loins into my shoulders. I had a tired, languid feeling and as I got no relief from the medicine I tried, I became discouraged. Finally, Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me. I used them and in a short time was restored to good health. I am grateful for what this medicine has done for me."

Kept Right on Working.

Congressman Gilbert M. Hitchcock, as proprietor of one of the largest papers in the Middle West, naturally enough is a believer in advertising. Here is a story he told recently:

"Years ago an elderly gentleman came into the office and submitted to me a want ad, offering a half interest in his store at Tekamah for sale. About a week later the gentleman returned with a beaming smile on his face and told me he had succeeded in getting a fine partner through the want ad.

"Several days after that the same gentleman visited me again and said: 'Remember that want ad I gave you and how it got me a partner? Well, it didn't stop with that result. My partner has decided to board with me. So you see I got a boarder also from the want ad.'

"Lo, and behold, about two months later the advertiser called to see me again. 'Remember that want ad I gave you?' he said, 'that got me a partner and a boarder? Well, that isn't all it brought me. My partner, who is a fine young chap, fell in love with my daughter, and now I've got a son-in-law, all through that one little want ad.'

"I can imagine," concluded Mr. Hitchcock, "that if I looked up the advertiser I could find even more remote results than those mentioned from that one little want ad."—New York American.

The officer of the Ebner Ice Company was also entered during the night. A window on Circle street was pried open with a crowbar in much the same manner that the office of the Seymour Manufacturing Company was entered. This morning an ink well was found on the floor, having been knocked from the desk by the visitors. The attempt to burgalize that office was unusually bold as the plant is in operation throughout the night and several men are employed there. It was reported that one of the employes heard a noise in the office and started to investigate and saw two men running down the street, but this is denied at the plant. So far as reported the burglars were not seen at any place and there is no description that would lead to their apprehension.

An attempt was also made to enter the book store of T. R. Carter, on East Second street. The burglars succeeded in getting into the unoccupied room adjoining the book store and the bruised wood along the side of the door leading into the book store shows where the burglars worked. Effort was also made to force the rear door and a window in the book store but was unsuccessful. So far as known the intruders did not get into the room.

The heaviest loss from a robbery at any one place occurred at the residence of Peter Forway, on East Second street. The house was entered sometime Tuesday afternoon between 2:30 o'clock and 4 o'clock while no one was at home. Mrs. Forway left at 2:30 o'clock and returned home about 4. She says she noticed a strange man near the house when she left and he walked to the Southeastern tracks and sat down. She did not suspect him and paid no attention to his movements.

Clothing and jewelry amounting to about $30 were taken from the Forway home. Two gold watch chains, one belonging to Mr. Forway and another to Winfred Ross, who rooms there, and an overcoat belonging to Henry Brandt, a brother of Mrs. Forway, were among the articles missing. There is no clew.

SCHOOLS IN COUNTY GIVE ATTENTION TO BASKET BALL

Vallonia is Promised Strong Team Taking First Game from Medora by 21 to 4 Score.

Basket ball is occupying the center of the stage in athletic circles throughout the county and some interesting games will be played by the various school teams this winter. The season for the Seymour team will begin next month and from the time the schedule begins until the close of the season games will be played regularly. The first game thus far scheduled is with the Southport five. Austin, however, may start the season for the local team.

Vallonia, Medora, Cortland, Freetown, Brownstown and Crothersville schools also have teams in the field. The first game between the Vallonia and Medora teams which was played Friday indicates that the former is much stronger. The score was 21 to 4 in favor of Vallonia. Practice is being held regularly in most of the schools.

Chicago Licenses Cheap.

Chicago, Oct. 27.—The Sunday closing of saloons in Chicago has knocked out the bottom of prices for saloon licenses. For two weeks licenses have been advertised for sale at a bargain, and D. Lynch, a saloon keeper, offers to give away a license that is operative until May 1. A score of saloons are advertised for rent with the license thrown in.

MOTHER TELLS HOW VINOL

Made Her Delicate Boy Strong.

New York City.—"My little boy was in a very weak, delicate condition as a result of gastritis and the measles and there seemed no hope of saving his life. It seemed to agree with him so that now he is a strong, healthy boy."—Mrs. Thomas Fitzgerald, 1090 Park Ave., N. Y. City.

RELICS OWNED BY LINCOLN TO BE SOLD UNDER HAMMER

Auction Conducted at Anderson Galleries in New York—Minor Sales Previously Made.

By United Press.

New York, Oct. 27—The coat he wore when shot, his finger ring, rifle, inkstand, watch-key and other intimate personal relics owned and used by Abraham Lincoln, will be sold "under the hammer" at the Anderson galleries today. Minor sales already have been made.

Among these objects are the Lincoln-Brooner rifle, bought in common by Lincoln and Henry Brooner for $15 and used by them in their shooting trips until 1830; a lock of Lincoln's hair, and a cane and umbrella handles owned by the Great Emancipator.

These things are a part of the collection of Lincolniana formed by John E. Burton, of Milkaukee, who has been assembling them for fifty years. Among the books and manuscripts to be sold are nearly all the biographies of Lincoln, including several in foreign languages, many portraits, the only known copy of the pamphlet entitled "Reasons Against the Renomination of Abraham Lincoln," the only copy ever offered at auction of "The Bloody Junto", Lincoln's last order for a pardon, two leaves from Lincoln's sum book of about 1824, with his autograph, and a series of seven documents signed by Lincoln which reveal four professional associations "about which nothing has been generally known."

L. A. Seetland and Mrs. Lula Rosenberger and son, of Vergannes, Ill., came Tuesday to visit H. S. Sweetland, agent for the Singer Sewing Machine Company.
